

2 000₽

The image shows two wooden massage rollers. Each roller is cylindrical with a series of parallel ridges. The top surface of each roller is covered in a grid of small, raised pyramids. The wood has a warm, light brown tone. One roller is positioned slightly behind and to the left of the other, and both are angled towards the right. A small wooden peg is visible on the side of the front roller. The background is a plain, light color.